

Brief Curriculum Vitae

Sharon L. Oberleitner

413 W. Idaho St. – Suite 301, Boise, Idaho 83702

Phone 208-629-8778

E-mail: sharon.oberleitner@behaviorimaging.com

Professional Experience

National Institutes of Mental Health

Project Director, $2.7M NIH grant

July 2013 – Present

Boise, ID

Subject matter expert on assessment practices to use Behavior Connect for Reliability Checks and Inter-rater Reliability for new Health Assessment using Behavior Imaging's platform. Leads a team to manage a multi-site pharmaceutical clinical trial connecting 4 medical clinics

Idaho State Department of Education

External Project Director

July 2009 – June, 2012

Boise, ID

Managed the successful integration of Behavior Imaging's enterprise solution with the State's record systems to facilitate all data collection for alternate assessment in the State of Idaho.

Caring Technologies, dba Behavior Imaging

Vice President, Clinical Affairs

Nov. 2005 – Present

Boise, ID

Manages Behavior Imaging' interface with the clinical community and coordinates with healthcare and education professionals to ensure the relevance and development of the company's solutions. She is the mother of a child with autism.

Air Force Operational Assessment

National Project Director

May 2010 – Oct 2010

Multiple locations, U.S.

For Operational Assessment of Store-and-Forward Tele-consultation for Supervision of Behavioral Therapy in Autistic Spectrum Disorders (Fed contract # Solicitation # F1ATD49141A002). Assisted Principal Investigator in recruiting, training, and was responsible for a multiple site deployment of a national Assessment of Behavior Imaging technology and use within the Military.

e-Merge Medical Technologies

Project Coordinator, $1.2M NIH grant

May 2007 – May 2009

Princeton, NJ

Project coordinator on a $1.2 million federal National Institutes of Health grant, "Novel Data Capture And Assessment Technology For Behavior Disorders". She coordinated 11 sites and 29 research participants nationally to assess the effectiveness of Behavior Imaging technology for improving education and treatment in autism classrooms.

AutismCares

Co-founder, Ops Director, Grant Reviewer

Aug. 2005 – Dec. 2006

Boise, ID

Co-founded and managed AutismCares, a coalition supporting autism families through Hurricane Katrina and other natural disasters.

TalkAutismCo-founder

Jan. 2002 – June 2007

Boise, ID

Co-founded TalkAutism, a leading autism web portal used by thousands of families and professionals, offering communication services shared by many autism organizations. These include resource directories, a distance learning library, and specialty message boards. TalkAutism was named “Best of the Web” by Forbes– “offers the best online support of any autism web site”.

Princeton Autism TechnologyFounder and President

Oct. 2001 – Feb. 2007

Princeton, NJ

Founded Princeton Autism Technology (PAT), a nonprofit corporation that successfully supported research and technologies to assist the autism community. PAT assist other nonprofit organizations, schools, health providers with piloting technology projects, and / or help them acquire technologies and resources through targeting grant resources or its own fundraising efforts. PAT has been a recipient for numerous demonstration grants, and has represented the autism community in many advocacy causes.

Autism New JerseyExecutive Board Member

Jan. 1998 – Dec. 2001

Trenton, NJ

Served as Secretary on the executive board of New Jersey’s nationally acclaimed autism services agency. Led the agency in fundraising and instituted several new programs in her tenure; was keynote speaker at annual 1998 autism conference (this organization was formerly called COSAC).

Honors and AwardsTechnology Innovator of the Year

October, 2011

State of Idaho Technology organization recognized Sharon as a Finalist as Innovator for providing Assessment View to improve Education Assessment nationally.

CCSSO / ASESAffiliate Member Representative

June 2011-present

Behavior Imaging Solutions’ company representative at quarterly meetings for Council of Chief State School Officers / Assessing Special Education Students (ASES).

Idaho Education State Policy CommitteeCommittee Member

2009 - 2010

Boise, ID

Only industry partner invited to evaluate and advise policy for state special needs assessment criteria.

Organization for Autism ResearchWinner - Annual Service Award

Oct. 2006

Arlington, VA

For her accomplishments with AutismCares, nationally-based OAR awarded Ms. Oberleitner their Annual Service Award for her contributions to the autism community.

Idaho State University, Autism Tech PanelFeatured Speaker

Aug. 2003

Pocatello, ID

Invited to be the keynote speaker, delivering a talk on technology options for professionals and people with autism to a state-wide audience via telemedicine network. *

*Representative venue for many public presentations which Ms. Oberleitner has addressed on behalf of autism, special education, and the use of technology.